Introduction

Hello, Peepul

This document has been drafted with the intention of attaining consistency in all of our communications.

Here we take you on a guided tour of our core brand elements and the principles that make this brand distinctive and immediately recognisable. This is to assist you design and produce dynamic communication with consistency.

Brand Philosophy

We are an education focused non-profit, transforming children's lives through quality education. Our endeavour is to provide every child with the opportunities they deserve.

Peepul derives its name from the peepal tree which signifies enlightenment in its purest form. The multiple leaves and branches of the tree ensure a nurturing ecosystem while its deeply embedded roots form a strong foundation.

The name also sounds like 'people', highlighting the fact that we are a people centric organisation with a people first approach. We put children and education at the forefront of everything and also believe that empowering teachers can truly transform the education system.

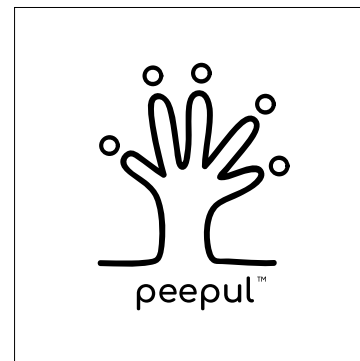

We co-create ecosystems with teachers.
We collaborate with change makers.
We inspire parents to be a part of the change.
We attempt to impact children.

Logo

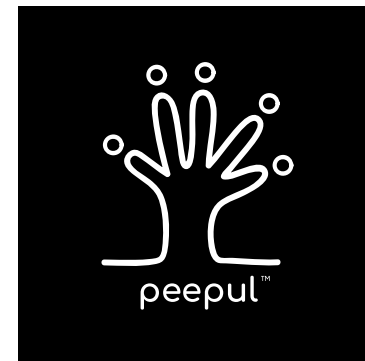

Logo

Logo is the single most important unit that defines us. Our logo resembles a child's hand while the overall structure represents a peepal tree.

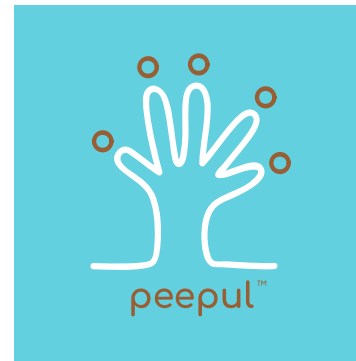

The fingers symbolize people coming together. In the following pages, we show you how the logo needs to be used.

Logo on white background

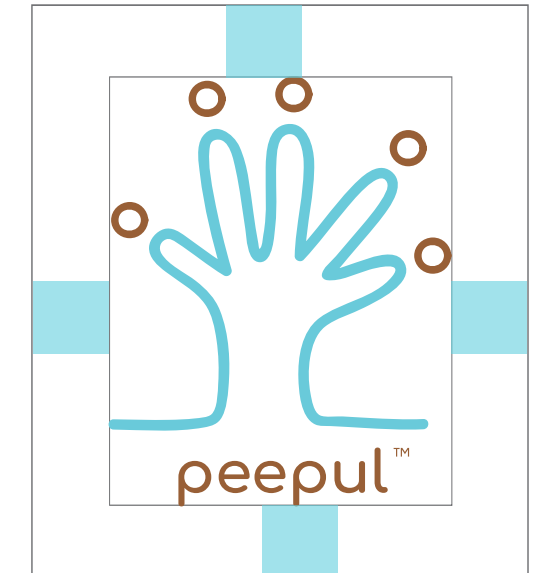

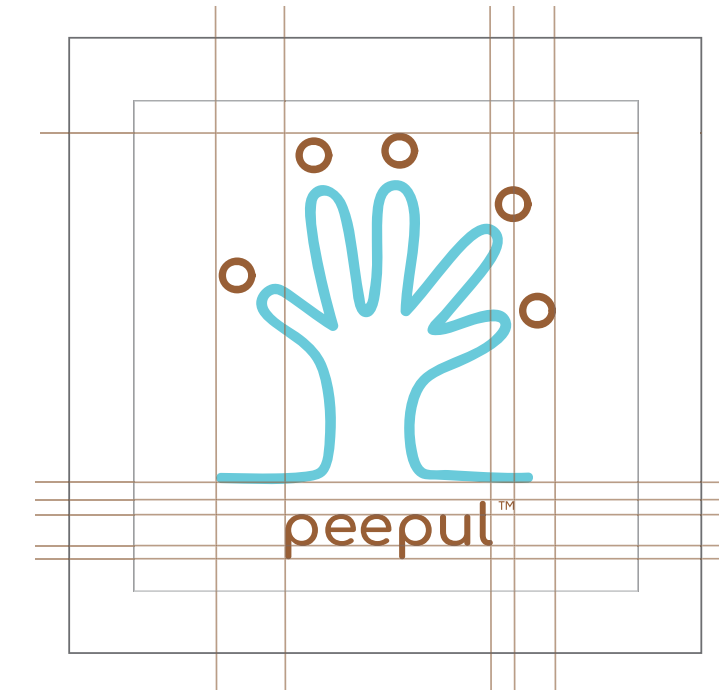

Logo on black background

Reverse Logo

Logo Placement

To ensure that our logo is clearly visible in all applications, it is necessary to leave a clear space of 1/6th the size of the logo on all its sides.

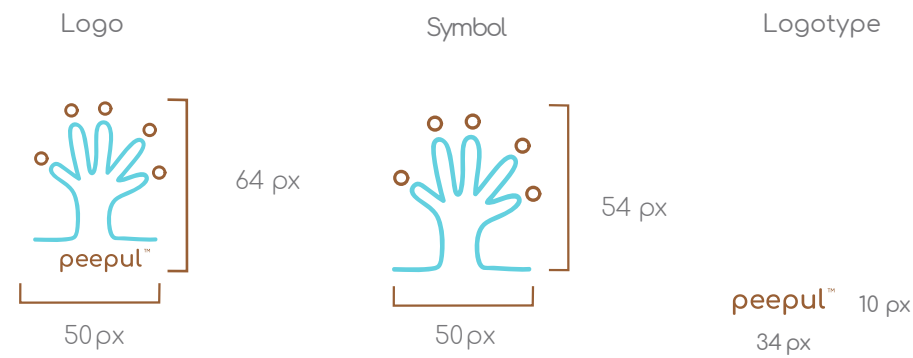

Logo Size

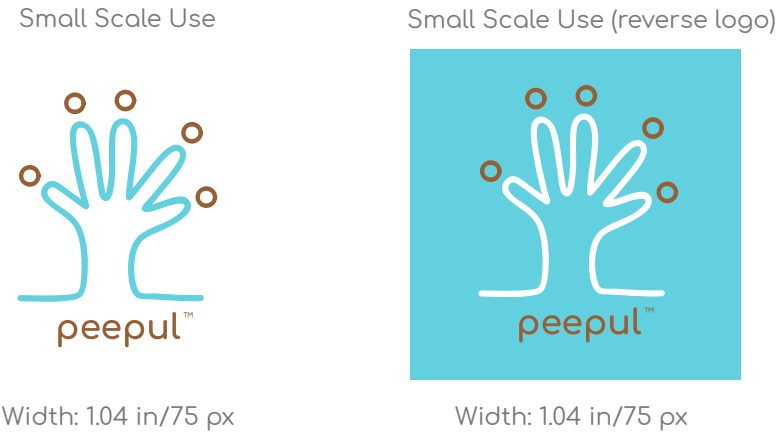

Scale and proportion should be determined by the available space, aesthetics, function and visibility. There is no preset maximum size for the logo. For digital uses, the minimum size is 50 px in width and 64 px in height.

In print, the minimum size is 1.04 in. The small scale logo can be used for letterheads and other documents.

For Digital

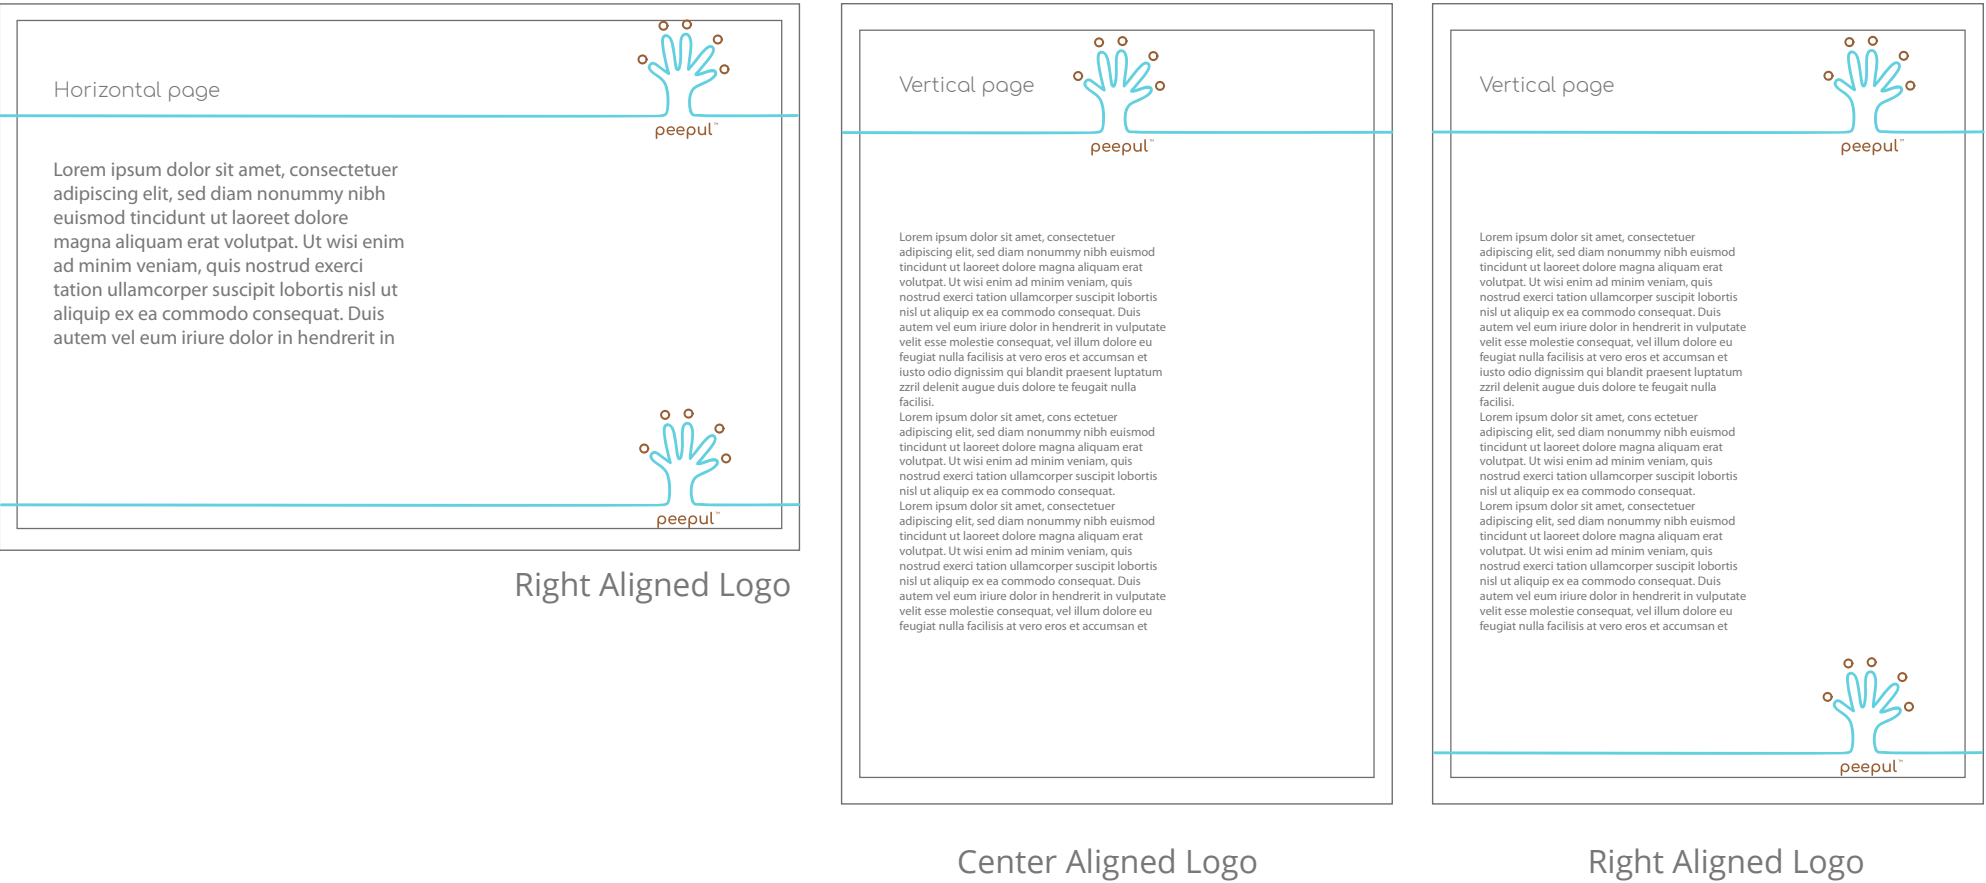

For Print

Logo Positioning

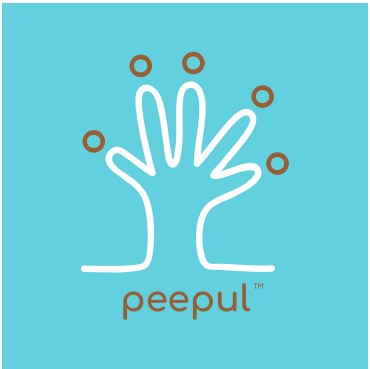

The ideal logo positions have been designed to maintain visual balance. If the page is horizontal, the logo must be right aligned. However, in vertical pages it can be both centre aligned as well as right aligned.

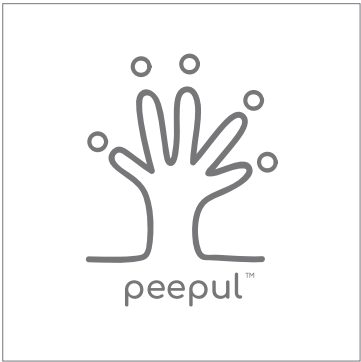

Logo Colours

Primary logo is to be used for all basic communications. Reverse logo can be used in case of a full bleed background.

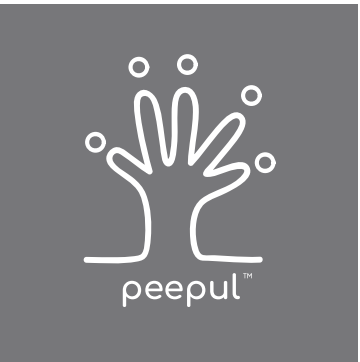

At times, a full colour logo may not be practical or possible due to limitations in printing like in the case of making logo stamps and/or stencils. In these instances, we may use a grey version (75% tint of black) or a single colour black or white logo.

Reverse Logo

75% Black Logo on White Background

White Logo on 75% Black Background

Logo Usage (Extension)

The secondary logo is used for horizontal usage. Since the logo is organic and open, it must not to be contained in any shape other than circle.

Extensions of the secondary logo can be used on signages. The bottom right space below the blue line, as indicated in the examples, has been set aside for the partner or school name, and/or location.

Secondary Logo

Misuses

To maintain the integrity of the logo and promote the consistency of the brand, it is important to use the logo as described in these guidelines.

The examples shown here illustrate possible misuses of the Peepul logo.

Typography

Fonts

Our brand typeface is Comforta. We use it in two weights, bold and regular. It is to be primarily used for headlines and display text.

Open Sans is our font for body copy and other following text. Our typeface is legible and clear. The letters in both are rounded and san serif fonts. This makes it relatable to children and exudes warmth.

Specimen 1

The spectacle before us
was indeed sublime.

21 pt. size

10 pt. size

Apparently we had reached a great height in the atmosphere, for the sky was a dead black, and the stars had ceased to twinkle. By the same illusion which lifts the horizon of the sea to the level of the spectator on a hillside, the sable cloud beneath was dished out, and the car seemed to float in the middle of an immense dark sphere, whose upper half was strewn with silver. Looking down into the dark gulf below, I could see a ruddy light streaming through a rift in the clouds.

Colour Palette

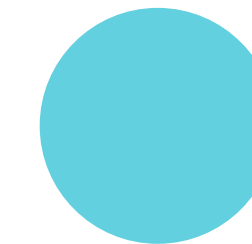

Colour Palette

Primary Brand Colours

Our colour palette has been chosen to bring out the personality of the brand. It attempts to capture the warmth and friendly nature of the organisation.

Blue signifies trust and sincerity. Brown highlights the rooted nature of the brand. Grey symbolizes intelligence. White showcases goodness and purity.

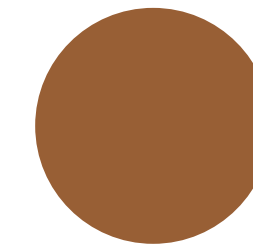

The purpose of secondary colours mentioned in the following page is to support the primary colour palette. They should only be used when absolutely necessary. Our preference is to only use primary colour palette across most communications.

Colour Proportion

The chart below is a visual guide of colour balance required in all communications. The scale denotes the visual proportion in which the colours are to be used.

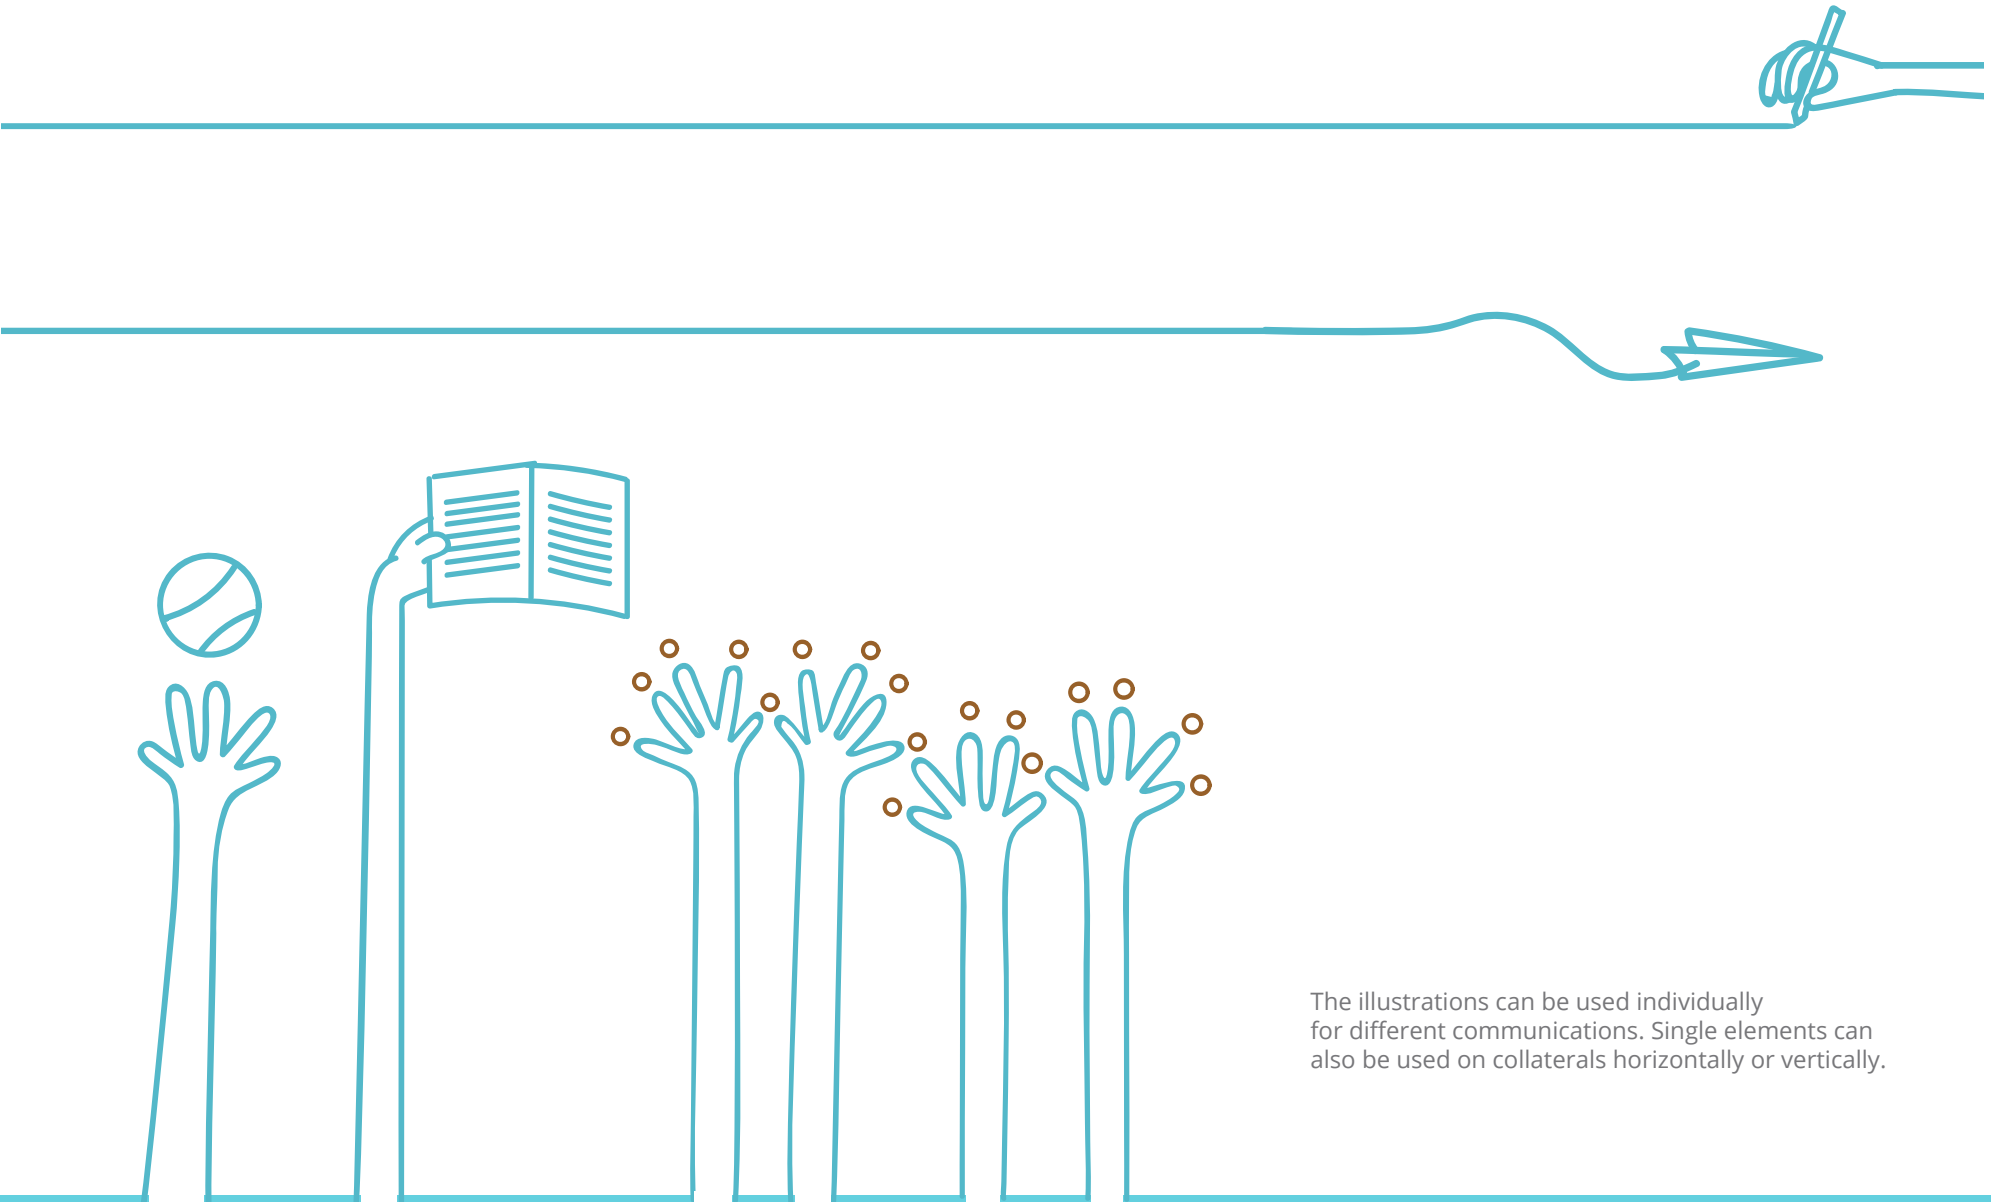

Visual Identity

[illegible]

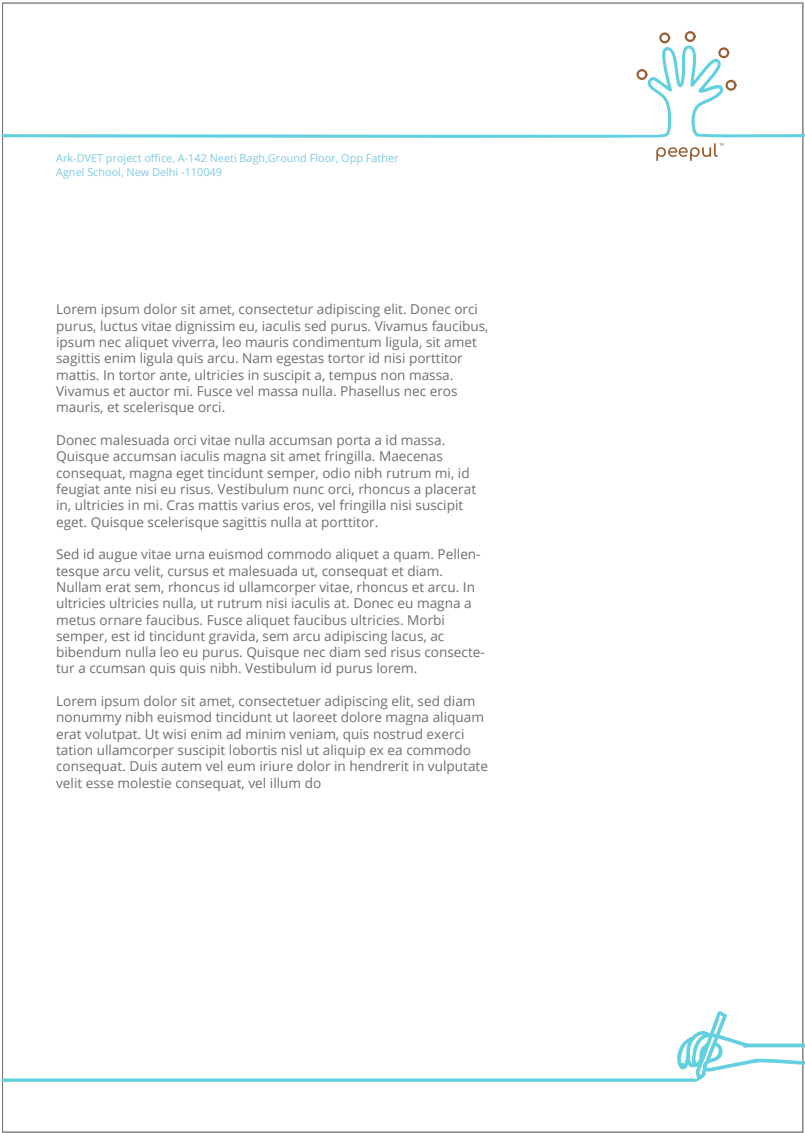

The lines act as a device of communication, empowering its audience to build an open-ended story. These lines are to be present in all communication collaterals and used in specific ways interpreted in the following pages.

Usage

The illustrations can be used individually for different communications. Single elements can also be used on collaterals horizontally or vertically.

Line Usage Example 1

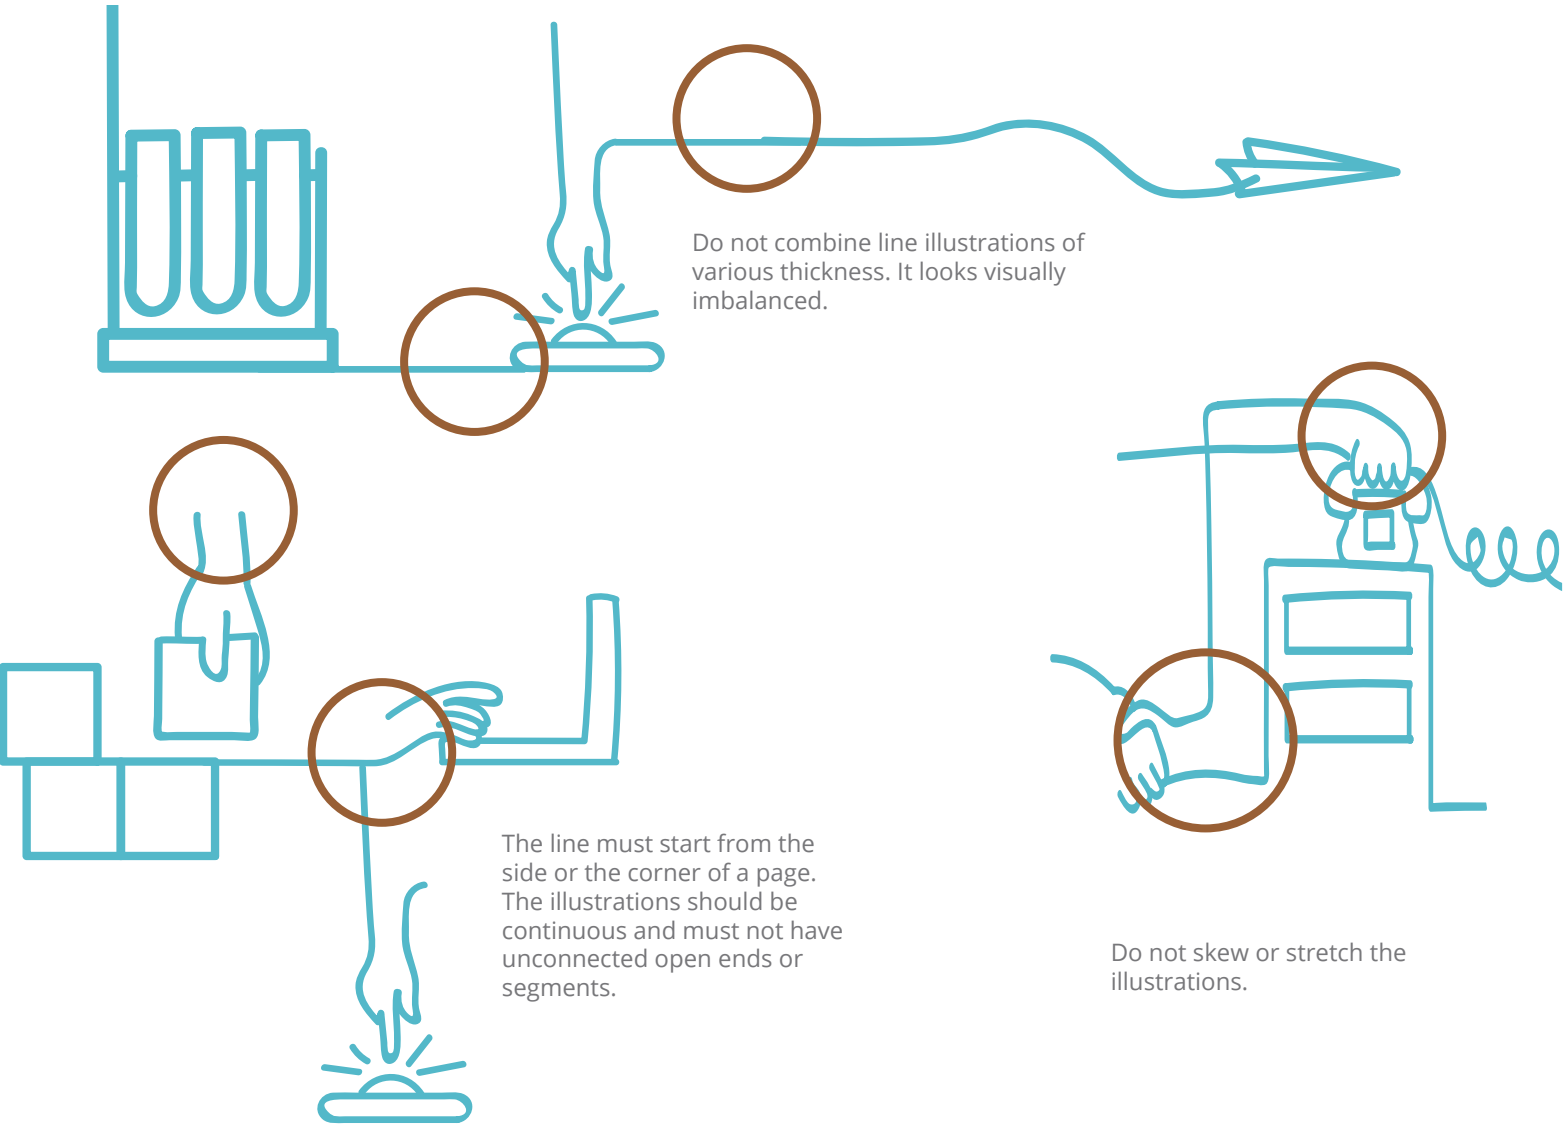

Line Usage Example 2

Misuses

The examples shown here illustrate possible misuses of the line illustration that should be avoided.

Do not combine line illustrations of various thickness. It looks visually imbalanced.

The line must start from the side or the corner of a page. The illustrations should be continuous and must not have unconnected open ends or segments.

Do not skew or stretch the illustrations.

Imagery

Image Style

Our image style is natural and bold. We try and include movement and activities wherever possible. The idea is to capture powerful expressions of our subjects focusing on their dedication and involvement in activities related to education.

While we also showcase the environment, we focus on a single activity, whether done individually or collectively, and attempt to convey a powerful message through images.

The attempt is always to capture positive energy with distinctive images that can create an impact.

Image Misuse

Do not use images that demean or belittle the children.

Do not use strong filters.

Do not stretch or skew the images.

Do not abruptly cut the images.

Do not use pixelated or low resolution images.

Image Placement

Layout Example 1

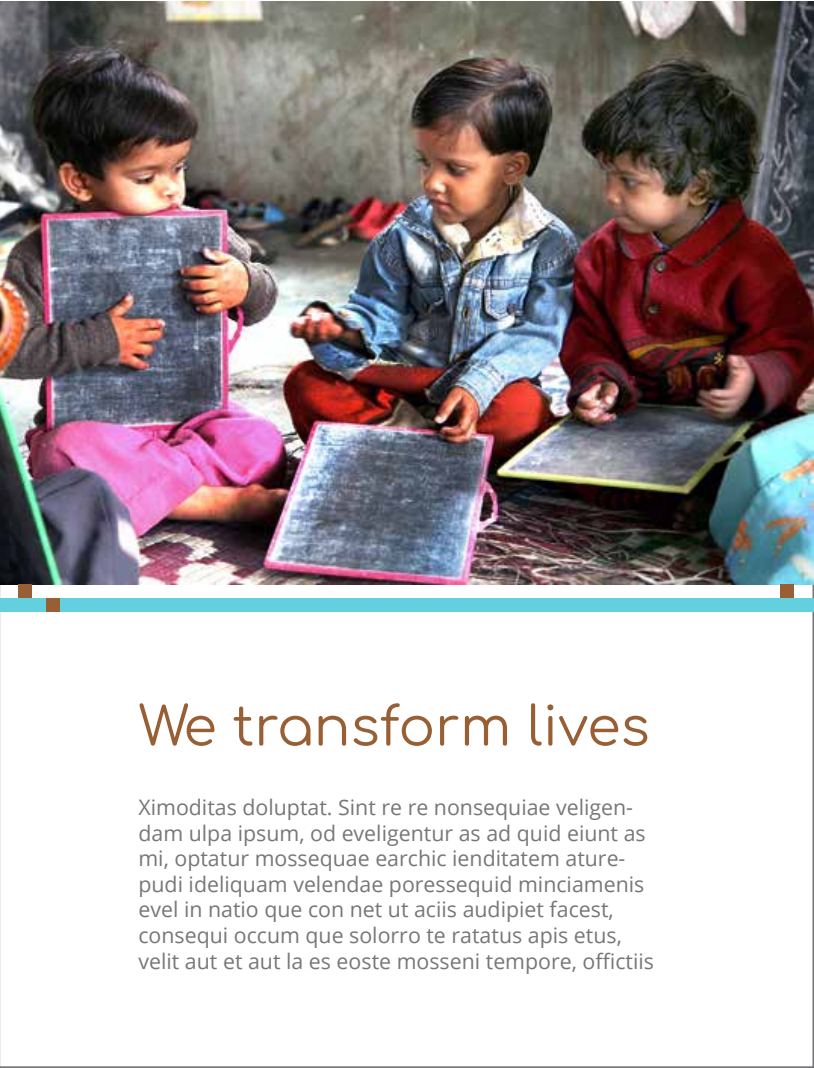

Image Full Bleed

Blue Line with a Gap of 1.8 mm Square

In case of full bleed images, either a white line or a Peepul blue coloured line must be present either at the top or at the bottom of the image to bring out the distinctiveness of the brand.

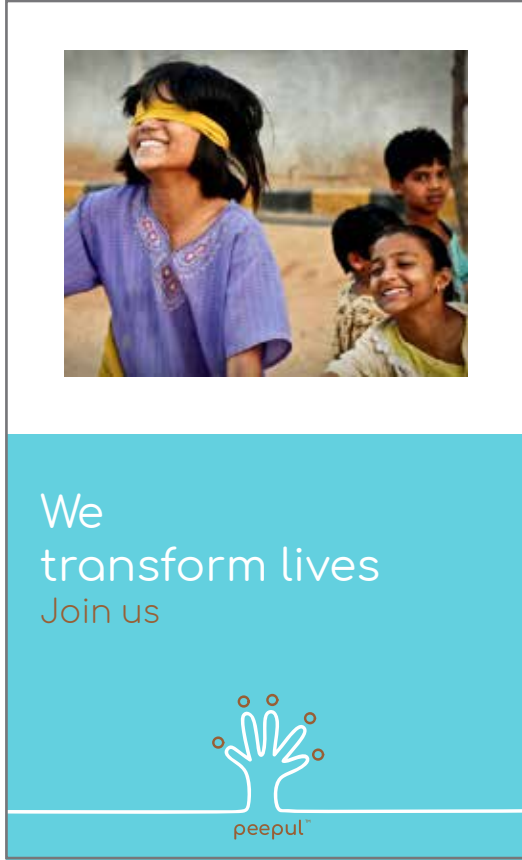

Layout Example 2

We transform lives

Ximoditas doluptat. Sint re re nonsequiae veligen-

Image Placement Misuse

Do not leave any blank white space around the images.

Do not use multiple images in one layout. Avoid showing images that are too crowded. Avoid stretching the line.

Do not place the logo on the image.

Tone of Voice

Our tone of voice translates our thought process to a human level. It aims to create a real connect with the audience.

We

Seek to influence people and never speak in an authoritative manner.

Speak in warm and familiar way, avoiding the use of uppercase letters.

Always sound confident and honest.

Talk in an empathetic, understanding and intelligent way.

Warm

Approachable, friendly, comforting

Open

Collaborative, honest, transparent

Confident

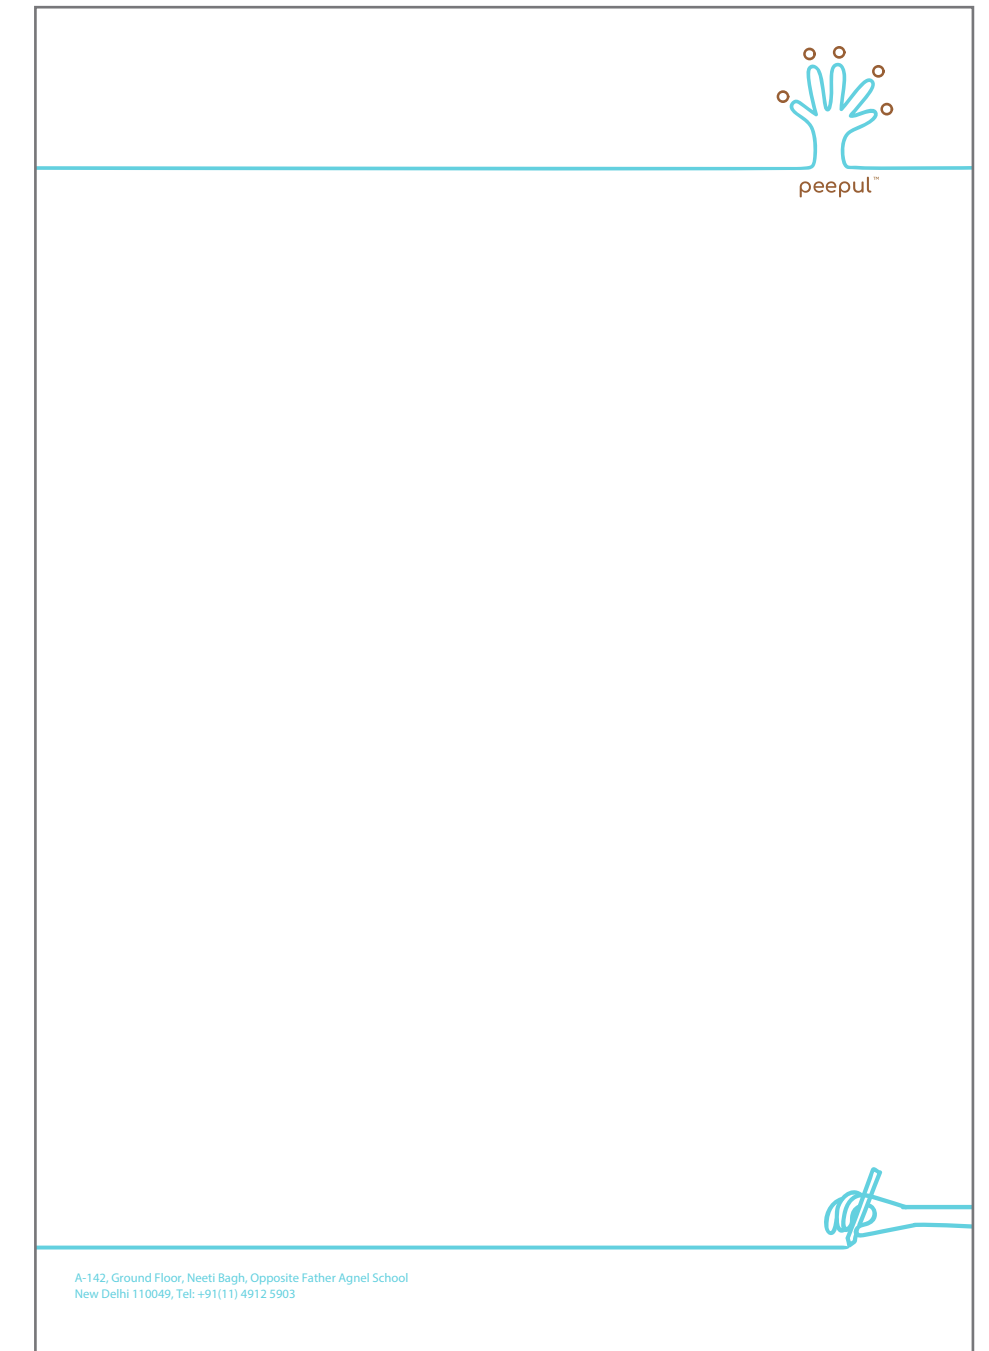

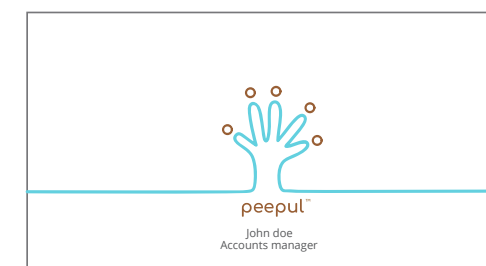

Empowering, creating impact

Collaterals & Layouts

Internal Usage

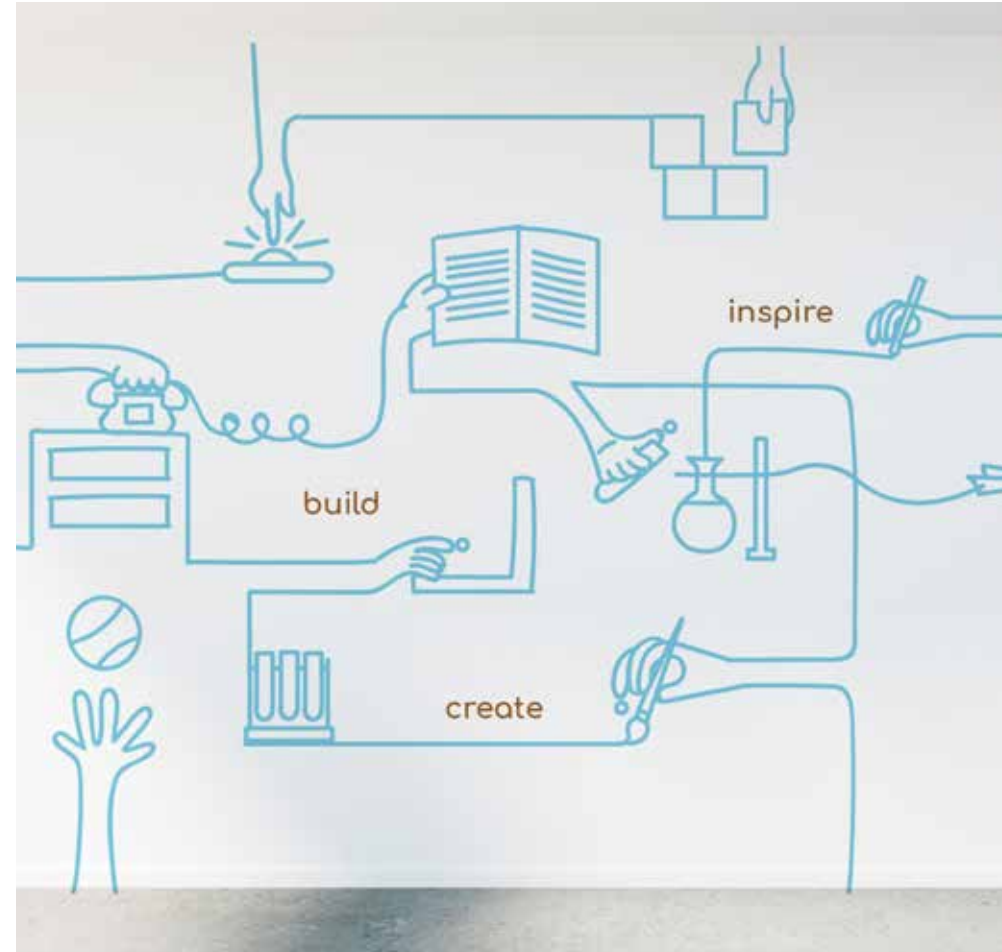

Wall Graphics

Wall graphics must relate to the children.
The example in this document is one such example of the brand illustration. Using these lines and hands, unlimited possibilities can be explored.

Also, walls can be treated like canvasses where children use the lines to create their own versions. A basic framework is provided and the lines can extend to form multiple interesting objects.

It is important to keep in mind that the thickness of the lines and the brand colour of the illustrations must remain the same at all instances.
